

Grandma Louie Says #2

As stated previously I am Ruth's Grandmother and am the mother of 12 children. My husband was the oldest of his siblings and his Dad used to take him to watch the rooster fights.

After we married, he became a wrestler and was very good at it. When he felt led to go into the ministry, he took training in a Methodist Seminary in Farmington, Missouri. The fellow class members became aware of his wrestling and one day before he came to class, they decided to not let him enter the classroom until he beat each one of them, and he did.

I played the piano for him at church. I also kept patching his clothes brought about by wrestling, and encouraged him to stop, which he did. We raised chickens and sold eggs. The grand-children liked to go with me to gather the eggs or feed the chickens.

However, they were afraid of the few fighting roosters he had. We had a roller piano in our living room and everyone enjoyed it when we put in one of the rollers and listened to it play. One afternoon, the boys got ahold of a recorder and recorded Bob singing "The Great Speckled Bird".

Now for my thoughts which I share

"Grandma Louie says":

Satan subtracts and divides.

God adds and multiplies.

First I got into the Scriptures,

Then the Scripturs got into me,

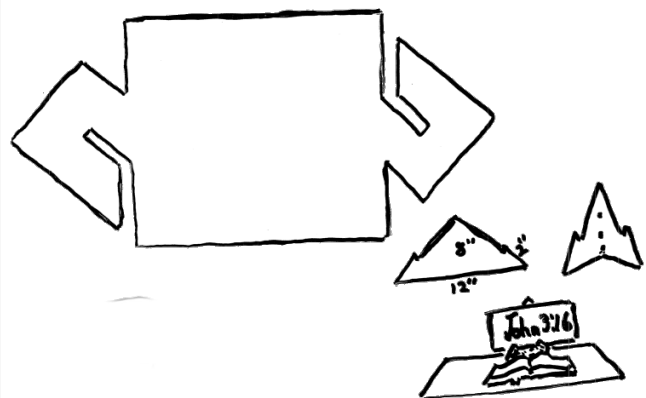

Now I'm getting the Scriptures into others

THE RETURN OF JESUS IS SURE;

For what the Bible PREDICTS

And Christ PROMISES,

God will PERFORM

"This will bring a little added enthusiasm to the memory work." John 3:16 -Cheryl